

Stronger Businesses. Stronger Nation.

The Comanche Nation Loan Participation Program helps lenders say “yes” more often—providing stronger, supported financing that opens doors for small business.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- Any small business located within the Comanche jurisdictional boundaries or businesses owned by Comanche Citizens located anywhere in the U.S.
- Business must have fewer than 750 employees
- Eligible uses of funds include working capital, construction, equipment, inventory, and real estate
- Ineligible projects include those supported by other federal sources, purchase of goodwill, and passive real estate investments, unless the total project cost is under $500,000

KEY TERMS - LOAN PARTICIPATION

- The fund will assume primary risk by subordinating its collateral position behind the lender
- The fund can purchase up to 50% of the total project cost
- It can support projects ranging from $10,000 to $20 million
- Loan terms are available for up to 10 years
- Borrower fee is no more than 1% of the project amount and can be rolled into the financing

PROCESS

- Lenders use their standard loan qualification process to evaluate applicants
- If a business qualifies, the lender submits an application to the fund on the business's behalf
- The fund administrators review the proposed loan to ensure it meets all eligibility criteria
- If approved, the lender closes and services the loan
- Participating banks may receive CRA credit for these loans
- The fund is designed to move at the speed of business, with fast turnaround on approvals

The Comanche Nation Loan Participation Program offers government-supported credit enhancements that reduce lending risk—empowering lenders to support more small businesses, strengthen local economies, and help build long-term economic independence for the Comanche Nation.

ELIGIBILITY

- Any small business within the Comanche Nation reservation
- Enrolled Comanche Tribal Members Throughout the US
